Wait a second, please listen to me, I have something to say.

Ballad is a kind of music that represents a story. Up to now, the story is finished. It is about Jake's soul were sent to his avatar body, and then he became a true Na'vi. No one knows how will the story develop, but you can feel its part up to this moment first.

The music is from the movie Avatar, composed by James Horner, and arranged into this piano version by me. The music actually came up with pictures, you may know them if you have see the movie. You would think that my version not as good as Horner's, of course, I think that also. That is because I am still young, not good enough to arrange better thing. It was arranged by ear, I think it is good for practicing also.

It is my first formal music arrangement, sorry for errors I made. This project took me nearly a year to complete! Thanks for all of you spend time to listen to me, thank you!
